

Course: Implementing an Integrated ISO Management System (IMS)Duration: 3 days

Integrating SHEQ Management Systems has become easier now that the relevant standards all have the same high level structure and identical core texts. This course is aimed at assisting an organisation to implement an IMS at the workplace by: Integrating ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015 and ISO 45001:2017.

Course Objectives

To provide delegates with international guidelines on implementing an Integrated Management System and to ensure that an IMS implementation is undertaken at the workplace.

Course Outcomes

By the end of the training course, the delegates will have:

- Established the extent that their current system/s matches up to the ISO Standard requirements. This will be achieved by conducting a Management Review of the three main disciplines of the IMS
- Implemented the major elements of an Integrated SHEQ Management System
- Developed a Gap Analysis Action Plan for completing the implementation

Target Group

- SHEQ system owners.
- Management System Representatives
- ISO 9001, ISO 14001, ISO 45001 certified company MS team members.
- Implementers of SHEQ Management Systems.
- Management System Auditors-in-training.

Language

This course is presented in the English language.

Learning Material

Delegates will be issued with Advantage ACT Course manuals and will use a loan copy of the new standards.

Pre-Requisites

Any previous ISO Management System training courses or work experience in SHEQ management.

Certification & Assignment

The course includes a practical assessment which leads to the issuing of a Certificate of Course Attendance.

The ideal setting for this course will be on-site at the client premises where the bulk of the integrated system is to be implemented or, if not the same premises, the site where the major elements of the existing systems are to be found.

The course composition should be at least eight people from the organisation that will be involved in the implementation including a Risk Management and Financial Management representative.
