

Course: HEALTH AND SAFETY
REPRESENTATIVE COURSEDuration: 2 days

A SHEQ Management System is not effective without the employees being represented. The SHEQ Representative is legally required to be nominated and elected from his/her fellow employees and is their voice in terms of Health and Safety needs and requirements. The representative is the eyes and the ears of the employees.

Course Objectives

On successful completion of this module the learner will be able to explain and document structured workplace inspections, observations and findings. These will be reported to and evaluated by Safety, Health and Environmental committee members before being submitted to management for corrective action and in accordance with Occupational Health and Safety legislation.

Course Outcomes

- At the end of this course with the use of the SHEQ representative or workplace inspection manuals the candidate will be able to:
- Explain the duties and responsibilities of employers, employees, and SHEQ representatives and committees in promoting and maintaining a safe and healthy work environment and community.
- Discuss the general hazard management steps that should be included in company inspections, evaluations and reporting systems.
- Identify workplace hazards in the context of your workplace and evaluate your conformance to legislated standards.
- Record deviations and make recommendations for corrective actions.
- Participate effectively in SHEQ Committee meetings and monitor corrective action procedures.

Target Group

- Newly elected Health and Safety or SHE/ SHEQ Representatives
- Current Representatives or Management Representatives
- Contractors
- Committee Members
